Simmons College of Kentucky's Federal School Code is 041780. We will receive your financial aid information ONLY if you list our school code on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER COMPLETING THE FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION?

1. After submitting the FAFSA, you will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR). Review the SAR for accuracy and verify SCKY is listed as one of your school choices. Whether you file your FAFSA by mail or electronically, our office will receive the results.
2. The Financial Aid Office will request any additional information necessary to complete your aid file. It is imperative you submit any requested documentation as soon as possible.
3. Once your file is complete, our office will review your eligibility for all federal/state student aid programs. Federal award letters will be mailed out after you have been awarded aid.

A processed FAFSA and all required verification documents, as well as notice of any outside agency assistance or scholarships, must be on file in the SCKY Financial Aid office by the semester Processing Deadline Date in order for you to receive anticipated aid by the semester Payment Due Date.
